The Peoples' Voice Cafe is an alternative coffeehouse offering quality entertainment. We provide a space for the artistic expression of a wide variety of humanitarian issues and concerns. The cafe is run as a not-for-profit collective, and is not affiliated with any political organization. New participating members and subscribers are always welcome. The Peoples' Voice Cafe's 2020–2021 season is supported in part by grants from The Folk Music Society of New York and The Community Church of New York Unitarian Universalist (Ethelwyn Doolittle Grant).

Peace Concert — Livestream Concert

There is a $12 contribution requested to help support these performers, whose usual access to public performance spaces has been limited by COVID; you can register online at peoplesvoicecafe.org. As PVC has a “nobody turned away” policy, we will also be live-streaming the concert at no charge at facebook.com/peoplesvoicecafe/. Live streams may start a few minutes after 8pm, so please be patient.)

The Peace Poets

The Peace Poets are family born of Hip Hop, heart, and hope in New York City. Some have been friends since as early as three years old and over time they have built an artist collective of poets, Hip Hop performers, and educators founded on this friendship and their common love for community and creative expression. Grounded in the power of personal narratives and community, The Peace Poets create and have shared Spoken Word poetry, rap, and Movement Music that responds to social and political crisis in over 40 countries.

Charlie King

Charlie has been at the heart of American folk music for half a century and has been writing songs for over 40 years. Charlie's witty political satire and his uncanny ability to find endearing songs about struggle and the human experience won him the 2017 Phil Ochs Award and numerous other honors. Tonight he will deliver humor, hope and healing through love songs, inspiring anthems, and incendiary broadsides.

Pat Lamanna

Pat's songs have a strong folk influence, and cover issues such as peace, religion and the environment. Pat is a 2019 winner of the South Florida Folk Festival songwriting contest. She has three solo albums to her credit. One of her songs, “Peace Pilgrim,” is featured in part on Pete Seeger's last album, Pete Seeger: The Storm King. Pat is thrilled to be back, virtually, at the People's Voice Cafe, one of her favorite venues.
