SONiA of disappear fear

SONiA—aka, the independent singer/songwriter Sonia Rutstein—once compared her musical stylings to “a bird jumping off a window ledge. It’s in that split second of trust and light and talent and God.” For nearly four decades, music lovers and fans around the world have relished “that split second” and the eclectic sounds of SONiA and disappear fear. Writing and performing in genres ranging from the blues and folk to world music, SONiA has appeared at concerts around the globe and performed with such luminaries as Pete Seeger, Joan Baez, the Indigo Girls, Sheryl Crow, Arlo Guthrie, and Peter Paul and Mary. Her latest recording is Album 23. soniadisappearfear.com

Tonight's concert is supported by the Folk Music Society of New York.

Lisa Gutkin

Lisa Gutkin has crafted a courageously varied artistic career. She is a member of the Grammy-winning Klezmatiks, co-founded the Downtown Celtic band Whirligig, was a co-creator of the Tony Award-winning play Indecent, and had a cameo on Sex and the City. Her song “Gonna Get Through This World”—with words by Woody Guthrie—was hailed by Pete Seeger, as “a piece of genius.” Lisa’s voice has been praised by the LA Times as “hauntingly emotional.” Her solo concert is a whimsical wander through her musical styles, featuring Lisa on fiddle, tenor guitar, and voice. lisagutkin.com

Tonight's concert is supported by the Folk Music Society of New York.
