

THE NEW YORK CITY CHAPTER
OF THE
PEOPLE'S MUSIC NETWORK
PRESENTS

"We the People!"
A Democracy
Teach-In

You love this country and are angered, shocked, and saddened by what is happening. Everyday brings more bad news and the expansion of executive power. You envision a world of equity, sustainability, justice and love, but what you see and feel is pain and injustice. And the death of democracy. So, what do you do? Who are your friends? How do you participate and how do you organize to make a difference?

Tonight we investigate and take action. Indivisible and MoveOn are two organizations at the forefront of organizing effective people's movements. Tonight, we will find out more about them and things you can do to organize in your neighborhood.

No Kings Day protests were a loud statement that we are not alone. What is the next step? That is up to you and me and everyone else you talk to and spend time with. Join us for an evening of activism and community. And music too.

Friday evening November 7th from 6:00 pm til 9:00 pm
at St. Paul & St. Andrew U.M. Church
263 West 86th Street / betw. Broadway and West End Ave.
