

Where can I go to safely have my feelings and share my ideas?

How can we contribute to what we want to happen in our country and our world?

How do we build community and take action together?

The New York City Chapter of the People's Music Network

invites you to participate in an evening of art and activism at their next FIRST FRIDAY event

Friday evening, June 5th

6 pm til 9:00 pm

Come to express yourself! Meet, make, and bring friends!
Conspire and inspire with other activists, artists, and concerned citizens.

Raise your voice and have some fun!

There will be conversation about the recent national PMN convergence in Massachusetts, active listening to contributions you have been making and want to make in your world and neighborhood.

And, as always, there will be music and a song-sharing circle.

Your voice matters! Bring it and share it! This is a free-to-the-public event.

The location is:

Trinity Lutheran Church/ 164 West 100th Street, Manhattan
